

4Cs Worship Leader

Part Time Position | Est. 20 hours / week

Entry Junior Mid Director Executive

Position Overview:

The Worship Director at 4Cs will, in cooperation with the staff Tech Director, lead the worship arts ministry, including musicians, vocalists, and certain team leaders (e.g. the volunteer Choir Director).

Key Responsibilities:

- The Worship Director will be the primary stage team leader for weekend services, Wednesday Evening Prayer service, and special services (Ash Wednesday, Christmas Eve, etc.) working in tandem with the Tech Director, and alongside pastoral staff.
- He or she will be responsible for cultivating dynamic worship services that flow well with the message content.
- They will build teams by attracting, recruiting, and caring well for volunteers.
- They will work in close relationship with the Tech Director and Pastoral Team in the execution of weekend services and lead the way in worshipping Jesus personally and corporately.

What a strong candidate would look like:

- Musically gifted both vocally and from at least one instrument.
- Experienced leader in teaching, mentoring, and caring for a team with a wide range of skill levels.
- Loves engaging, congregational worship in a range of styles, encompassing both hymns and modern worship, alongside lyrical and theological depth.
- Looking to work within a department (and greater church staff) where they are part of a supported team, not a lone island.
- Committed to being a follower of Jesus and authentically shepherd others along the way.

About Our Church:

Christ Community Covenant Church, is a multi-generational, welcoming, family of believers rescued by Jesus Christ and led by his Holy Spirit. We are part of the Evangelical Covenant Denomination, and as a church community we aspire to be...

A family church – Supporting and encouraging families, married people, singles - helping all people find intimacy and belonging in a believing community.

A multiplying church – Building relationships with the undecided that result in a loving proclamation of the Gospel in word and deed, in Spirit and in Truth.

A teaching church – Engaging believers to enter a lifelong apprenticeship of Jesus, being disciplined into a deep, abiding relationship with Christ.

A community minded church – Finding your place of Kingdom service and making a difference in our neighborhoods.

A celebrating church – Encouraging and offering transformational encounters with the One True God! Instilling a heart of worship and prayer that is both corporate and personal.
